
The Sunday Dive Club

The Club that Dives!

The Sunday Dive Club meets every Sunday aboard the Lockness Dive Boat in Freeport, LI!

We dive many of the popular shipwrecks in the LI/NY/NJ area.

The club dives within advanced open water limits, 100 to 130 feet. Certification is required. Contact the club for deep dive requirements.

Dive historic wrecks. Collect artifacts or hunt for dinner.

Experience the abundant marine life that resides on our local wrecks.

Visit our website

www.sundaydiveclub.com

for more information and to join our mailing list.

2011 Dive Season Schedule

June	Wreck	Depth
5	G&D	110'
12	Oregon	130'
19	Student Day—USS San Diego	110'
26	Algol	130'
July
3	Linda	140'
10	Hylton Castle	100'
17	Student Day—USS San Diego	110'
24	RP Resor (added fuel/early leave)	130'
31	Arundo	130'
August
7	Oil Wreck	170'
14	Oregon	130'
21	LIDA –STUDENT DAY	TBA
28	Oregon	130'

Please note that the schedule may run into September and October, weather permitting. Rates are the same as long as fuel costs do not increase.

The Lockness is a beautiful 48' Breaux Brother's craft located in Freeport, Long Island, NY. She comfortably accommodates 22 divers and all their gear. The boat is only minutes from Jones Beach Inlet.

All trips are 2 dives with ample surface interval.

The boat leaves the dock at 6AM sharp! All gear must be onboard ½ hour before departure.

BBQ grill is available for use. Bring what you plan to eat and drink. Tipping the crew is highly suggested.

Discounts will be applied when booking through the Club, membership not required. Space is limited.

Dive site subject to change due to weather or safety concerns at captain's discretion.

For more information and

Booking

contact

www.sundaydiveclub.com

Or

Natalie

Email: nataliew77@yahoo.com

631.848.9208